Jan. 9th, 1868.

Virginia Central Land Agency.

I HAVE VERY RECENTLY PERFECTED THE organization necessary to conduct, on the largest scale, the business of selling Lands, Mills, Mines, Furnaces, Water-Powers, &c.

My partner, Colonel R. J. PAGE, is in charge of our office in New York. In Philadelphia and Baltimore, I have Associates of the highest respectability and responsibility.

And for the sale of Lands, Mines, &c. in North Carolina, I am associated with D. W. COURTS, Esq., of Reidsville, for many years State Treasurer of N. C.

The facilities this Agency offers for the sale of Lands are not surpassed in the South. In regard to Mines of all kinds, I have made contracts with parties in the cities North of this, who make that branch of the business a specialty, both on this country and Europe securing to me the widest possible field of operations, and if this city I have the aid and services of that accomplished mineralogist and Assayer, Col. WILLIAM GILHAM, for the prompt analysis of all minerals that may be sent to me—this determining the value of mines, before they are offered for sale.

Terms:—For selling lands, five per cent commission on all sales actually made, but no charge whatever, unless a sale is effected. For Mines, an additional remuneration fee, the subject of contract in each case, and payable out of proceeds of sale.

Reference is made to public men generally throughout the State, with most of whom I have the pleasure of being personally acquainted.

State "Conservative Convention!

It is resolved by the State Executive Committee of the Constitutional Union Party of North Carolina, that a State Convention of the party be held in the City of Raleigh, on WEDNESDAY, the 5th day of February, A. D. 1868, at 11 o'clock of that day.

It is confidently hoped that the friends of a Constitutional Union and civil liberty will be active in the effort to make the Convention the largest and most respectable that ever assembled in the State.

Let the Conservative people in every County of the State, where meetings have not been held, hold meetings at once, pass appropriate resolutions, appoint delegates and see that they attend the Convention.

The condition of public affairs demands the patriotic effort and co-operation of every good citizen, to save the country from impending danger.

By order of the State Executive Committee.

R. C. BADGER,
Secretary.

January 4th, A. D. 1868.

THE REPUDIATORS.

Nothing would afford every honest man in the State higher gratification, than to see some safe and honorable method adopted, by which relief could be afforded the people of the State under the embarrassments of indebtedness, created before and during the war. That our people are not able to pay their debts, dollar for dollar, is beyond question, even if the property left to them by the ravages of war could be sold at a fair valuation. Under the present depreciation of property, on account of the scarcity of money, but few, who are much indebted, can pay twenty five per cent. of their indebtedness and yet live.

But anxious as we are for the relief of our people, we can never give our sanction to any law, organic or statutory, which violates the Constitution of the United States, so long as it has existence, or which violates the plainest principles of Christian morals. Civilization, Christianity and American liberty have done little for us, if, when difficulties arise, we lose our hold upon private and public virtue. The calamities of war, while they constitute a solid reason among our people for mutual sympathy, forbearance and compromise, (and surely the man who is unwilling to compromise, in view of these calamities, is heartless,) yet furnish no legal or moral reason for the repudiation of honest debts.

But two chances, in our judgment, are left debtors for an honest and legal settlement with their old creditors. The first is, a general settlement by compromise, with the consent of creditors. The second is, to those who cannot pay, the bankrupt law. But neither of these methods suits a large class of persons, who desire to retain the property they have, but are indisposed to pay. Politicians and demagogues, who desire to propitiate this class of persons, whose votes are very important to them, have, constantly, during the war and since, held out to them hopes of ridding them of their indebtedness by the agency of stay-laws or final repudiation.

This is the remedy which the Radical Convention in this city will hold out to the people of this State for their woes,—the consideration which the Radicals will offer to our people, as a reward for their perfidy in voting for a Constitution which fixes universal negro suffrage, negro equality and negro supremacy upon the white people of this State, and whatever else Radical ingenuity and injustice shall see proper to require. As much of the indebtedness of the people was entailed upon them on account of slavery, and the credit upon which their indebtedness was based originated in the possession of property in slaves, it would have been far more just that the Radical party, when it demanded the repudiation of property in slaves, should at the same time have assumed the payment of its indebtedness or repudiated it also, and thus thrown the responsibility of the crime of repudiation where it properly belonged.

The resolution of Mr. McDonald, of Chatham, and the ordinance of Mr. Rodman, of Beaufort, are but the entering wedges to the incorporation of the principle of repudiation into the organic law of this State. No lawyer knows better than Mr. Rodman, that, if we had a Congress which respected an iota of the Constitution of the United States, nothing could be more fatal to the success of the new Constitution the Convention proposes to frame, before that body, than the introduction of the principles of his ordinance into that instrument. And yet he and the entire Convention have sworn to support that Constitution, which he knows, and all of them ought to know, positively prohibits a State from doing such an act.

We learn that the scheme is, to remodel our Court system, which department of the Constitution has been placed under the guardianship of Tourgee, of Guilford, (Heaven save the mark!) and that the organic law is to prohibit the jurisdiction of the Courts over all contracts, debts, &c., made prior to May 1865. If such a clause be in force for any term of years, or be placed within the power of the Legislature to control, we should regard it as an entire repudiation, forever, of those debts. This repudiation, of course, cannot affect debts due by the State or to individuals out of the State, but may be regarded as a wiping out of the entire personal indebtedness of the people to each other, created before May 1865. The effect of such a clause in the Constitution of this State, if allowed to run for five years, would produce incalculable mischief and ruin. While it might save to some what they now possess, what would become of the orphans and widows, corporate bodies and others, who might be compelled to pay what they owe to the last cent, through the agency of the U. S. Courts, but who would have no redress whatever from any source?

After such a shameless abnegation of all debts through unconstitutional means, what would the personal credit of any man in the State be worth? What confidence could be placed in Tourgee's new State of North Carolina, after the passage of such an act?—When North Carolina does this, she will indeed be a new State, governed by a new people, without credit or reputation. And all this for what? Simply to ensure the success of a partizan Constitution, made with the view of Radicalizing and Africanizing North Carolina.

THE NEW RECONSTRUCTION BILL.

The new "Reconstruction" Bill, which has passed the House of Representatives, as announced by telegraph on yesterday, and which will doubtless soon become a law over the President's veto, provides:

Section 1. That the existing provisional civil State Governments—those set up by President Johnson and so far left by Congress at the discretion of the military commanders—in the ten unreconstructed Rebel States, shall not be recognized by the Executive or judicial authorities of the United States.

Sec. 2. That the General of the army (Gen. Grant) shall have full and absolute authority in the execution of the Reconstruction laws over each and all the ten States embraced in the five Southern Military districts.

Sec. 3. That the General of the Army, in his discretion, may remove and appoint the civil officers in said States, and the President shall not interfere with him in these matters or in the appointment of the military district commanders.

Sec. 4. That it shall be unlawful for the President to order the army or navy to the support of any existing provisional government of said ten unreconstructed States.

Sec. 5. That any interference by any person with intent to prevent the execution of the orders of Gen. Grant under the law shall be held to be a high misdemeanor, subject to a penalty of five thousand dollars fine and two years' imprisonment.

Each member of the Radical Congress, who voted for this bill, violated his oath, and the most shameless part of the business is, that they do not hesitate to avow it.—Every one of them has taken an oath to support the Constitution of the United States, and not one of them pretends to justify, on constitutional grounds, the enactment of such a law or of any part of the entire scheme of so-called Reconstruction. Thaddeus Stevens, indeed, the father of the whole iniquity, expressly admits that everything which Congress has done in this matter is extra-constitutional—in plainer words, a violation of the Constitution.

Having thus violated their oaths in the inauguration of their programme of Reconstruction, sec. 1 of the foregoing bill proceeds to inhibit the Supreme Court,—the lawful tribunal for passing upon such matters,—from declaring unconstitutional, what they admit to be such. Of course, such an inhibition is not worth the paper upon which it is written, if the Court is true to its great trust, but it affords the strongest evidence yet furnished of the desperation and recklessness of the Radical revolution ists.

The 2nd, and 3rd, and 5th, sections are equally revolutionary and usurpative, divesting, as they do, the constitutional powers of the Executive, as Commander in Chief of the Army and Navy, and delegating them to an inferior and subordinate. The attempted exercise of these powers, by Gen. Grant, will be mutiny and insubordination, and if the Constitution were any longer in force, they would be punished accordingly.

Where this is all to end, no mortal can foresee. The President is unusually reticent as to his purposes. We fear, however, that he has delayed too long, and that he is fast fettered and bound. The Supreme Court has fixed an early day in March for the consideration of the McCardle case, involving the constitutionality of the Reconstruction Acts, and the Court, we presume, will hardly regard any prohibition affecting its decision in that or any other case. If the Supreme Court is made to fall, also, beneath the heel of the revolutionary destroyer, we see no prospect of relief short of the great popular condemnation which will be expressed in the next Presidential election, if, under the military dictatorship and despotism, another Presidential election shall ever be held! These are sombre anticipations, but we fear that the times justify them.

THE SO-CALLED (YESTERDAY.)

The unconstitutional Convention worked for itself only, on yesterday. After wrangling and jawing for hours, eight dollars per day was fixed upon as the per diem for members and twelve dollars for the President, with twenty cents mileage. It cannot escape recollection how the Radical press howled, last winter, when the "rebel" Legislature voted its members six dollars per day, at a time when board was at least 25 per cent higher than it is in this City today. We may now expect the concern to sit interminably, and white men in North Carolina are to be taxed to pay for all the mischief it may do.

The Convention (so-called) also created the office of Reporter, for the benefit, as it leaked out, in the course of the proceedings, of the Standard, in general, and of Mr. Joseph W. Holden, in particular. This Reporter is to be paid the same per diem as a delegate, and, we learn, is to have a copyright of the debates, which are, also, to be published in the Standard—we presume for compensation. There is no stenographer in this City, and, consequently, no person competent to make a full and accurate report of the speeches in the Convention. No accurate report would be permitted, if there was. And thus the people—about whose needy condition these "patriots" seem to be so much exercised,—are taxed, in order to stipend a paper and reward pets.

THE TEST OATH.

Differences of opinion exist on this subject, it strikes us, without proper foundation. Any person, who is properly qualified to hold an office under the government, ought to be capable of determining, for himself, whether he can take the oath or not. Its terms are very plain, and every honest person, who has a conscience, can, perhaps, better determine for himself, whether he can properly take it or not, than any other person. A very common opinion exists that no true North Carolinian can take it properly. While we believe very few persons comparatively can take it, conscientiously, yet we think the number may be larger than many suppose. Many have, no doubt, taken it improperly, and we do not doubt that many more will, yet we are far from condemning those who feel called upon to do so, who can do it honestly and properly.

There are but two sections in the oath, about which any difficulty can arise. It is perfectly shocking to think that any man, who went voluntarily either into the military or civil service of the State or the Confederacy, during the war, no matter what motive influenced him, or who sought, or accepted, or attempted to exercise, the functions of any office whatever, in opposition to the government of the United States, would, under any circumstances, take the test oath. But doubts may arise on the following points, viz: "That I have voluntarily given no aid, countenance, counsel or encouragement to persons engaged in armed hostility thereto;" and, again, "that I have not yielded a voluntary support to any pretended government, power, or Constitution within the United States, hostile or inimical thereto." The moral character of a person's conduct, in the above cases, must be determined by his acts and the conscience of the individual.—We have italicised the words which are most important to be considered. The Attorney General, Mr. Stanbery, gave it as his opinion, that individual acts of mercy, humanity or kindness to individuals engaged in "rebellion," were not contemplated by the oath, but that organized bodies to supply food and clothes to the soldiers did afford such aid and countenance. Nor is an individual justified in rendering voluntary support to the "rebellion," for the purpose of concealing his hostility to it. To enable all to judge for themselves, we append the law and oath:

Be it enacted, That hereafter any person elected or appointed to any office of honor or profit under the government of the United States, either in the civil, military or naval department of the public service, except the President of the United States, shall, before entering upon the duties of such office, and before being entitled to any of the salary or other emoluments thereof, take and subscribe the following oath or affirmation:

"I A. B., do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I have never voluntarily borne arms against the United States since I have been a citizen thereof; that I have voluntarily given no aid, countenance, counsel or encouragement to persons engaged in armed hostility thereto; that I have never sought nor accepted, nor attempted to exercise the functions of any office whatever, under any authority or pretended authority, in hostility to the United States; that I have not yielded a voluntary support to any pretended government, power or constitution within the United States, hostile or inimical thereto; and I do further swear (or affirm) that to the best of my knowledge and ability, I will support and defend the Constitution of the United States against all enemies, foreign and domestic; that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the same; that I take this obligation freely, without any mental reservation or purpose of evasion, and that I will well and faithfully discharge the duties of the office on which I am about to enter. So help me God."—which oath, so taken and signed, shall be preserved among the files of the Court, Houses of Congress, or the department to which said officer may appertain. And any person who may falsely take said oath shall be guilty of perjury, and on conviction, in addition to the penalties now prescribed for that offence, shall be deprived of his office, and rendered forever incapable after of holding any office or place under the United States.

Approved July 2, 1862.

THE FUNDS.—The Reconstruction Acts provide that the expenses of the so called State Conventions shall be raised by a special tax upon the people for said purpose. The question will arise, perhaps, whether monies raised out of the people for other purposes, can be properly applied to meet the expenses of the Convention.—That question we shall not touch, believing that the State authorities are competent to decide it, without any suggestion from us.

It is understood that the Convention will call upon the Governor or Public Treasurer for a specific sum to meet its entire expenses,—the sum to be placed in the hands of the Sergeant-at-arms, to be disbursed. So far as this action is concerned, we make two suggestions. First, that the Convention make the sum large enough, in view of the delays in business caused by the lack of parliamentary knowledge and experience in the body. And, secondly, to be sure that the Sergeant-at-arms executes a bond sufficiently good to cover the extent of his responsibilities. We do not know Mr. Peck, the Sergeant-at-arms, and, if we did, we should give this advice, for the reason that few men, now-a-days, can be trusted, without bond, to disburse 40 or $50,000. We have heard nothing said about requiring such a bond; hence the suggestion.—We observe that the disbursing officer of the U. S. Senate, a relative of Forney, is minus, and that Forney has to foot the bill, somehow or other.

"Except in Missouri, Kentucky and Maryland, such a thing as an agricultural fair in the old slave States was unknown, but with the overthrow of treason and the triumph of freedom all will be changed."

So says the Washington Chronicle, with its usual lying disregard of fact. In Virginia there were in operation before the war at least ten flourishing agricultural societies, while in Eastern North Carolina nearly every county had its annual exhibition; besides there was at Raleigh a State Association upon a large scale.—Petersburg Index.

The State Comptroller of Georgia was removed at his own request. He stated to the Military Governor that he would not sign any warrants issued by the new Governor, and requested that some military man and not a toadying renegade might be appointed to fill his place.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS.

Mr. Bryan's amendment to Mr. Rich's amendment, in regard to the per diem, was taken up, put and lost.

After some time spent in the further consideration of the matter, the previous question was called, and Mr. Rich's amendment, substituting "$8" for "$6," was adopted, as follows:

YEAS—Messrs. Abbott, Andrews, Ashley, Baker, Barnes, Benbow, Blume, Carey, (negro,) Carter, Candler, Cherry, (negro, Chillson, Colgrove, Congleton, Cox, Daniel, Dickey, Dowd, Duckworth, Eppes, (negro,) Fisher, Franklin, French, of Bladen, French, of Rockingham, Fullings, Garland, Glover, Graham, of Montgomery, Graham, of Orange, Grant, of Northampton, Gully, Hare, Hay, Highsmith,—Hoffler, Holt, Ing, Ladin, Logan, Long, Mayo, (negro,) Moore, Murphy, Nicholson, Parker, Parks, Ragland, Read, Renfrow, Rhodes, Rich, Ross, Stilly, Stillwell, Taylor, Tourgee, Trogden, Watts, Welker and Williamson, (negro.)

Aydlott, Bradley, Bryan, Durham, Ellis, Etheridge, Forkner, French, of Chowan, Gahagan, Galloway, (negro,) Garrett, Gunter, Harris, of Wake, (negro,) Harris, of Franklin, Hobbs, Hodnett, Hollowell, Hood, (negro,) Hyman, (negro,) Jones of Caldwell, Jones, of Washington, King, of Lincoln, King, of Lenoir, Kinney, Lee, (negro,) Legg, Lennon, Mann, May, Marler, McCubbins, Merritt, McDonald, of Chatham, McDonald, of Moore, Morton, Mullican, Nance, Newsom, Patrick, Petree, Peterson, Pierson, (negro,) Pool, Ray, Robbins, (negro,) Rodman, Sanderlin, Smith, Sweet, Teague, Tucker, Turner and Williams, of Wake.

Mr. Rich moved to reconsider, and hoped the House would refuse to do so.

Mr. Tourgee moved to lay the resolution to reconsider on the table.

[Here the House involved itself in another wrangle. Every body wanted to speak at once, as to whether the resolution, as amended, should be put, or Mr. Tourgee's motion to lay on the table, or something else, when]

The President cut the debate short, by putting the question on the passage of the resolution, as amended, and it was carried.

Mr. Tourgee moved to reconsider.

Harris (negro,) moved to lay that motion on the table. Carried, and so rests the per diem.

Mr. Mann withdrew his former resolution in regard to the lobbies.

Mr. Mann's resolution inviting U. S. officers, on duty at this post, to the floor, was adopted.

Mr. Abbott's resolution, appointing a Committee of three to wait on Gen. Canby, and consult on matters of public interest, was adopted.

The Chair announced the appointment of the following additional standing committees:

ON PRIVILEGES AND ELECTIONS:—Abbott, McCubbins, Sweet, Forkner, Fullings.

ON PRINTING:—Ashley, Andrews, Marler, Duckworth.

ON CONTINGENT EXPENSES:—King, of Lenoir, Hood, (negro,) Morton, Read, Trogden.

ON ENGROSSMENT AND ENROLLMENT:—Pool, Durham, French, of Chowan, and Harris, of Wake, (negro.)

Mr. Rodman asked that his ordinance, appointing a reporter, be taken up. The Secretary read the ordinance, and Mr. R. proceeded to advocate the appointment.—He did not suppose the people would object to increasing the expense to attain such an object.

Mr. Durham opposed the appointment. He said that there was danger of being misrepresented. The Journal of the House was a sufficient record. This was an innovation, and he also opposed it on the ground that it was a piece of useless expense, unwarranted by any precedent in this State.

Mr. Hodnett said that the office was being created only for the purpose of conferring it on a partisan, and it would be made a strictly party record, the publication of which would be given to a certain Editor in this city. That would give him an undue advantage over the other gentlemen of the press. He opposed it on the ground that it was an innovation upon the customs of good old North Carolina. He came here an advocate for free schools and a liberal system of education; and while thousands of children were being reared in ignorance and degradation, he could not vote for a measure involving so much useless expense. Our people at home are starving and groaning under debts and burdensome taxes, and we have no right to pass a measure augmenting that distress, merely to feed hungry partizans. He would oppose such an useless and outrageous piece of extravagance to the bitter end.

Galloway (negro) advocated the measure.

Carey, (negro,) said he wanted a reporter—a good republikin,—and went on to allude to Mr. Hodnett's having "dug in a certain individual mine in Yanceyville." (Here the President told him to confine himself to the matter under debate.) He resumed, saying that he would get back and stay when he got dar. He was gwine to make a few remarks, and he wanted them put down by a reporter, to go down to the archives of gravity. (Here, after an effort or two, the President put him down and he subsided, after showing some signs of resistance.)

Mr. Ellis said he was opposed to burdening his taxed constituency by running into such extravagance. He stated that in New Hanover, there were 2,975 negroes registered; 992 were reported over age; leaving 1983. Only 946 listed; 1,037 failed to list; who should have done so; and that, in his county, (Catawba,) 762 whites listed, and only 11 were returned insolvent; 174 blacks listed and 65 were returned insolvent. He could not, in justice to his constituency, vote for such a measure.

Mr. McDonald, of Chatham, was opposed to the creation of the office, but if it was the sense of the House, he would vote for J. W. Holden against the world. He was a Holden man.

[Harris, of Wake, (negro) was allowed to give vent to some impudence in relation to "stripling Reporters," which we pass by as unworthy of notice.]

Mr. Holt, of Orange, moved to lay the ordinance on the table, and said the newspapers would tell a great deal more, as it was, than the Convention would like to hear. He called for the yeas and nays; and, being called, they resulted in the motion being lost—yeas 22, nays 83.

Mr. Durham moved to strike out that portion of the ordinance which contemplated expenditures from the State Treasury. Not adopted.

Mr. Durham called for the yeas and nays; and, the call being seconded, the Secretary proceeded to call the roll.

The following delegates are understood to have voted in the affirmative, viz:

Messrs. Abbott, Andrews, Ashley, Barnes, Benbow, Blume, Bryan, Carey (negro) Carter, Candler, Chilson, Colgrove, Congleton, Cox, Dickey, Duckworth, Eppes, (negro,) Forkner, Franklin, French, of Rockingham, Fullings, Gahagan, Galloway, (negro,) Garland, Garrett, Glover, Graham, of Montgomery, Grant, of Northampton, Gully, Harris, of Wake, (negro,) Hay, Hayes, of Robeson, Hayes, of Halifax, (negro,) Highsmith, Hoffler, Hyman, (negro,) Ing, Jones of Caldwell, Jones, of Washington, King, of Lenoir, Kinney, Laflin, Lee, (negro,) Legg, Logan, Long, May, Mayo, (negro,) Morton, Mullican, Murphy, Nance, Nicholson, Patrick, Parker, Parks, Petree, Pierson, (negro,) Ragland, Ray, Renfrow, Rhodes, Rich, Robbins, (negro,) Rodman, Rose, Smith, Stilley, Stillwell, Taylor, Teague, Tourgee, Trogden, Tucker, Turner, Watts, Welker, Williams, of Wake, and Williamson, (negro,)—79.

In the negative:—Messrs. Baker, Bradley, Cherry, (negro,) Daniel, Durham, Ellis, Etheridge, George, Graham, of Orange, Gunter, Hare, Hobbs, Hodnett, Hollowell, Holt, Lennon, Mann, McCubbins, Merritt, McDonald, of Chatham, McDonald, of Moore, Moore, Sanderlin, Williams, of Sampson.—25.

Mr. Abbott presented a resolution declaring that the debt of North Carolina shall be held inviolate. Laid over.

Mr. Abbott, a resolution tendering the use of this Hall to Rev. Dr. Smith, to deliver a lecture on normal schools. Adopted.

Mr. Tourgee, a resolution to inquire whether any member of this body is disqualified by the acts of Congress. Referred.

On motion of Galloway, (negro,) the Convention adjourned.

THE ÆTNA LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY OF HARTFORD.

ASSETS OVER $7,000,000. PAID POLICIES BY DEATH, IN NORTH CAROLINA, $33,000.

Judge E. A. BULKELEY, President. T. O. ENDERS, Secretary.

W. H. CROW,
MANAGER AND GENERAL AGENT FOR THE STATE OF
NORTH CAROLINA AND PART OF VIRGINIA.

IN COMPARING THIS COMPANY WITH FORTY-TWO COMPANIES, AND BY THE REPORT of the Insurance Commissioners of Massachusetts, the following facts appear, under OFFICIAL ENDORSEMENT:

1st. The Ætna issued more policies than either of forty other Companies. More than four times the average, AND NEARLY ONE-TENTH OF ALL.

2nd. That excluding Capital, the Ætna's ratio of Assets to Liabilities is larger than that of twenty-nine Companies, AND MORE THAN THE AVERAGE OF ALL.

3rd. That the Ætna's receipts are larger than those of either of thirty-eight other Companies, and more than three times the average, and more than one-fifteenth of all.

4th. That the Ætna's ratio of expenses to receipts is less than that of twenty nine other Companies, and LESS than the average of all.

5th. That the Ætna's ratio of increase in premium receipts to the cost, is greater than that of any other Company, and four times the average. [See table "C," in Insurance Report.]

6th. That the Ætna's ratio of losses is sixteen per cent less than the average.

7th. That the Ætna's ratio per cent. of increase in Assets is greater than that of any other Company, and more than four times the average.

It will be observed from these comparisons that many Companies do not make so good a showing as the Ætna, although they are unquestionably reliable.

The "ÆTNA" is an old and well-tried institution, and the above extract from the highest official authority upon the subject of Life Insurance commends the Company at once to the thoughtful and serious enquirer, who wishes to make a CERTAIN provision for those depending upon him.

The Ætna loans her customers one-half the premium as long as life lasts, at six per cent., if desired, and gives no restrictions in location or travel in the United States, at any season of the year, and pays her members the of any Company doing business in this State, and is PERMANENTLY LOCATED HERE; has paid more Revenue into the STATE TREASURY than any other Company, and paid more money to Widows and Orphans than any other, and therefore, with all of these facts, well deserves the largest patronage, and IS RECEIVING IT.

The ÆTNA, being a STOCK COMPANY, gives all the benefit of dividends to her insured and none of the liabilities usual in "Mutual insurance."

8 per cent interest is allowed upon the Capital Stock of $3,000,000, and the balance of the profit goes to the insured, which profit or dividend is larger than any other Company doing business in the State.

The ÆTNA has over

THE ÆTNA IS A STRANGER TO LITIGATION.
A VERY IMPORTANT FACT.
IT HAS PAID $5,000 TO WIDOWS.
HAS NEVER REFUSED TO RENEW A POLICY LAPSED DURING THE WAR.

Any other facts will be cheerfully imparted in the office, over the Store of Messrs. W. H. & R. S. Tucker & Co.

THE SENTINEL.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 23, 1868.

CONVENTION.—The Daily Sentinel, with the proceedings of the Radical Convention, will be sent regularly for $1 for a month, or during the Convention, if its session does not greatly exceed that time.

TO SUBSCRIBERS.—Several of our friends have remitted us monies for new subscriptions, according to our last year's terms. In every case we give such subscribers full credit for the amount sent, according to our new terms.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Bouchardat's Annual Abstract of Therapeutics, Materia Medica, &c., for 1867, by Dr. M. J. DeRosset, Adjunct Professor, University of Maryland: For sale by J. D. Love, Wilmington, N. C.

Newspaper and Magazine Depot: Jas. H. Ennis, Fayetteville Street.

Prime Corn, Coffees, Sugars: Douglass Bell, Fayetteville Street.

MAYOR'S COURT.—Thos Hanly, Co. A, 8th U. S. Infantry, voluntarily reported himself at the City Guard House, at a late hour on Tuesday night, he being under the influence of spirituous liquor. He was retained by the Police under general order 57, and turned over to the military authorities.

THEATRE, LAST NIGHT.—The first appearance of Sargent's Dramatic Company, at Tucker Hall, last evening, was very well greeted, and is pronounced, by those who attended, to have been a very brilliant rendition. The Company possesses such histrionic talent as is not often seen in our midst and Mr. Sargent has spared no expense to give the public a fine representation of the legitimate Drama.

We have no time, in this issue, for further comment. To-night will be produced Taylor's great sensation Drama of "The Ticket of Leave Man," and a good farce.

CORRECTION.—In the report of the Convention proceedings, for Saturday last, Mr. McCubbins, of Rowan, was represented as saying that he "favored the postponement of Mr. Durham's resolutions, for the reason that he wished them withdrawn." What he did say was, that he favored postponement, because he desired time for consideration, and they might be withdrawn.

Again, on the question of their indefinite postponement, Mr. McC. is not recorded as voting. He voted in the negative.

PERSONAL.—We had the pleasure of a visit, on yesterday, from Jordan Stone, Esq., Editor of that espital paper, the Roanoke News. Mr. S. is still in the City, and we commend him and the journal over which he presides to the people of the State.

"THE TIMES."—James W. Albright, Esq., of Greensboro, proposes to revive the paper bearing this title, which was discontinued in 1861, on account of the war. Mr. A. has the requisite ability and experience to make an entertaining and valuable paper. The Times will be decidedly anti-Radical, and will embrace all the other elements of a reliable paper. Terms $2 per annum, in advance.

STATE LIBRARIAN.—We learn that, Mr. Hill having resigned, Henry D. Coley, Esq., of this City, has received, from the Trustees, the appointment of State Librarian. Mr. Coley, it is said, can take the required oath.

DEMOREST'S MAGAZINE.—We are indebted to Jas. H. Ennis, Esq., Bookseller, Fayetteville Street, for the February number of this elegant Periodical of Fashion and Art. It is more attractive than usual in its illustrations, plates and reading matter. Among the contributors to this magazine is Mrs. Mary Bayard Clarke, of this State, whose graceful pen often adorns its columns.

THE MUDDLE.—We have not attended the deliberations of the so-called Convention, nor do we expect to. We learn, however, that its proceedings are confused and incongruous,—that they get tangled inextricably each day—and that the session is likely to be vastly protracted, simply because the President is wholly unacquainted with parliamentary law and the experience necessary to manage such a body. The opinion has been expressed to us, by persons competent to judge, and who are not unfriendly to the President, that the expenses of the Convention will be augmented at least $20,000 over the necessary sum, simply for the want of an experienced presiding officer. Mr. Cowles is so much of a utilitarian and economist, that we are sure he will frequently call upon Mr. Rodman, and others, who understand the business better, to preside, or will resign his place to a more experienced person. He does not help the cause, when he puts such men in the chair as the old Sheriff of Lenoir.

INTERESTING TO RELATIVES OF A DECEASED SOLDIER.—The following letter, addressed by Gilbert Child, Esq., of Mobile, to Gen. D. H. Hill, will explain itself. The Press of the State will please give publicity to the letter, in the hope that, in this way, the facts communicated may reach the relatives of the deceased soldier:

MOBILE, January 15, 1868.

Gen. D. H. Hill, Charlotte, N. C.:

DEAR SIR.—I have in my possession a gold watch, the property of Geo. Holderness, who died here during the war. I am anxious to return it to his relatives and have made many inquiries about them.—Holderness was a member of the 39th. N. C. Regiment of Infantry, McNair's (or McNairy's) Brigade. This was an Arkansas Brigade, but had two companies of N. C. Troops, 39th. Regiment, with them.

I have taken the liberty of addressing you, because I hoped, through your extensive acquaintance in North Carolina, you might be able to find the lawful owner of the watch.

The idea that this soldier might have had a family, who are now destitute, as, God knows, too many now are, moves me to make exertion to restore it.

Very respectfully,
GILBERT CHILD,
No. 757 Mobile P. O.

STATE NEWS

—A correspondent of the Register, of this City, writing from Elizabeth City, pronounces as false the statement contained in a recent memorial presented to the U. S. Senate by Sumner, that "land-owners in that section were driving freedmen from the lands their industry had purchased." He says the falsity can be proven by every honest freedman in the County. Of course.

—No election having been held, the Mayor and Aldermen of Wilmington hold over. General Ransom having resigned the office of Marshal, Mr. John D. Poisson has been elected to supply the vacancy.

—Dan. Castello's Circus, in connection with Barnum and Van Amburgh's Menagerie, is journeying hitherward. It will be in Wilmington, on the 29th. and 30th.

—The Wilmington Star regrets to learn that the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad Company has been compelled to discharge between forty and fifty workmen out of the shops and yard—machinists, carpenters, blacksmiths and laborers of various degrees of skill. This deplorable necessity is the result, of course, of the stringent times and the stagnation which pervades all channels of business.

—The Newbern Journal of Commerce says of Mr. R. W. King, the delegate from Lenoir in the "so-called," that in 1862 he was the best sort of a "rebel," and, as a Magistrate, swore officers of the Confederate army into the service. Now he is an intensely "loil" man.

DOWN WITH THE DICTIONARIES.

The reporter of the Raleigh Sentinel, who sketches the proceedings of the North Carolina Bones and Banjo Convention, in his classification of members, called the black members "negroes." For this he has been threatened with expulsion from the hall.—Commenting on the action of the Convention, the New York Journal of Commerce congratulates itself that the authority of the North Carolina Convention does not reach beyond the limits of that State, and that the people of the North are not under the necessity of "hunting up delicate euphemisms to suit the fastidious tastes of the members of that body."

It becomes a question whether the political and social revolution which Radicalism is now attempting is to be allowed to take a literary turn and subvert our standard dictionaries. It appears to be aiming at the authority of the Lexicographers, and to threaten, what all New England has until now been proud of, the fame and the ascendancy of the learned Noah Webster. We call a horse a horse, a man a man, the whites Caucasians, the blacks Negroes. Turning to Webster's dictionary, we find the following definition:

"Negro—a black man; especially one of a race of black or very dark persons, who inhabit the greater part of Africa, and are distinguished by crisped or curly hair, flat noses, high cheek bones, and thick protruding lips."

This is the definition of a New England Lexicographer, made before the reconstruction bill was passed giving suffrage to the negroes. Has that act changed the meaning of the word?

There was a very great man of England who abhorred the slave trade, and always manifested a profound sympathy for the African savages. This great man was the learned Dr. Samuel Johnson, the author of "Johnson's Dictionary of the English language." He had for years a negro servant named Francis Barber, to whom he left the bulk of his property, and after naming him in his will, he added—"negro."

Dr. Johnson, of England, and Noah Webster, of Massachusetts, were our most eminent Lexicographers, and we have that authority for calling a black man a negro.

Down with the dictionaries, exclaim the Radicals—a black man is not a negro!—What, then, we ask, is he? He is not an ape, a gorilla, an Indian or a white man.—If not a negro, what is he? Among the numerous wants created by Radicalism is the want of a new dictionary.—Richmond Whig.

COLONELS—Z. B. Vance, J. E. Brown, H. C. Jones, E. A. Osborne, S. D. Lowe and W. Lee Davidson.

LIEUTENANT COLONELS—C. W. Bradshaw and John A. Young.

MAJORS—D. M. L. McLeod, J. G. Harris, Robt. Gibbon (Surgeon,) P. J. Sinclair and J. A. Sadler.

CAPTAINS—W. P. Hill, M. P. Pegram, R. M. Oates, Jas. F. Johnson, J. G. Morrison, Thos. Grier, A. G. Brenizer, J. H. McAden (Sergeon,) Sid H. Alexander, E. W. Stitt, Thos. H. Brem, J. Roesler, S. E. Belk, J. R. Nisbet, R. E. Cochrane and Parks McCombs.

LIEUTENANTS—E. K. Bryan, G. W. Bryan, D. W. Oates, Samuel Grier, D. M. Rigler, J. G. Young, M. M. Wolf, J. G. McCorkle, C. W. Alexander, John Elms and Wm Elms.—Char. Democrat.

THE SUPREME COURT BILL.—The Supreme Court bill has been referred to the Senate Judiciary Committe, and will not be reported until the Supreme Court decide whether the McCardle case will be reached in two months, or not in two years, which they will soon do.

GAME.—Upwards of two hundred wild turkies have been killed this season in the immediate vicinity of Manassas Station.

TELEGRAPHIC.

Thursday Morning Dispatches.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22, P. M.

In connection with Grant's reported opposition to the new Reconstruction Acts, it is regarded as significant that Washburne, of Illinois, though in his seat, did not vote for or against the bill.

The Armstrong case from Louisiana, pending before the Supreme Court, involves several important points, to wit: Whether a seizure and capture are the same; whether property liable to capture and prize embraces land held by private title; whether property tainted by the guilty consent of the owner is relieved by his pardon, after condemnation and before sale; whether the Constitution operates with its guaranties upon him, when the United States recover, &c.

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22, P. M.

House.—The Deficiency Bill was resumed.—Maynard, of Tennessee, proposed that the matter of stationery be left to the honor of members. Stevens objected, that it was an old rule, under which members made stationery cover pantaloons and shirts. The Bill finally passed.

A memorial from Mississippi, praying the removal of the disabilities of certain persons, was presented.

The Committee on Education were directed to enquire into the expediency of providing a general system of education in Rebeldom,—educating every child between 5 and 20.

The bill forfeiting lands granted the rebel States for railroad purposes was resumed. During the discussion, Mr. Chandler called Julian a coward. The Speaker ruled the words to be unparliamentary. Chandler retorted, "certainly not, if he is one." Julian said that Chandler could test his cowardice at any time. Chandler replied: "Very well sir; I'll take an early opportunity!" The bill went over.

Senate:—The Reconstruction Bill was read. Mr. Doolittle objected to a second reading, and it went over, under the rule.

The Conference Committee's report on the anti-contraction bill was adopted and the bill goes to the President.

The amendment to the Cotton tax bill, admitting foreign Cotton duty free, was re-affirmed by the Senate,—25 to 18. The Committee will probably agree to disagree, and the bill will fail.

FROM RICHMOND.

RICHMOND, Jan. 22, P. M.

In Convention, to-day, the proposed Article, declaring Virginia co-equal with the other States, was defeated.

Bishop Mollvaine, of Ohio, made a brief address to the Convention.

Schofield gives an entertainment to the Peabody Trustees, to-night.

Grant leaves for Washington to-morrow.

A resolution was adopted by the Trustees of the Peabody fund, offered by Gen. Grant, providing that, in view of the destitution in the South, the Executive Committee be authorized to expend forty per cent. of the principal, in addition to accrued interest, and that at least $200,000 be expended during the current year in the most advantageous promotion of the objects of the trust.

The Board has adjourned.

SOUTH CAROLINA CONVENTION.

CHARLESTON, Jan 22, P. M.

But little done to-day. Some opposition manifested to measures of relief, but the vast majority favor them. Question probably decided to-morrow.

FLORIDA "SO-CALLED."

TALLAHASSE, Jan. 22, P. M.

Nothing of importance done to-day. Committees appointed. Christy resigned the Secretaryship, and Conant (white) elected in his place.

MARKETS.

NEW YORK, Jan. 22, P. M.

Cotton firm, though less active. Sales of 2,800 bales at 17@17¼.

Governments closed strong. Coupons of '62, 10½.

Gold 1.39½.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 22, P. M.

Cotton dull, 16½.

Flour very dull—nominally unchanged.

WILMINGTON, Jan. 22, P. M.

Spts. Turpentine quiet, 43

Rosin declined and quiet, $1.87½: Tar 1,90.

Cotton declined ½. Sales at 14½.

GRANT AND STANTON.—There is reason to expect that Mr. Stanton may resign in a few days. General Grant was again with him to-night, and unqualifiedly expressed his opinion that Mr. Stanton should resign, and General Sherman yesterday earnestly advised the same course. Meantime Mr. Stanton is reduced to the merest clerkship in the War Department. The President will not permit any order to be sent from the War Department except in strict accordance with law, which, being literally followed, will prevent any order issuing from the Secretary of War as heretofore, and compel everything of that character to be issued by direction of the President. General Grant will only recognize orders from the President.—Data, in Sun.

DAILY SENTINEL.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 23, 1868.

From the Wilmington Journal.

MARSHAL NEY.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—The opinion advanced by the Warrenton Indicator and transferred into the Daily Journal of Nov. 18th, 1867, that Marshal Ney, one of the glories of the first French Empire, taught school in Cabarrus county, and found his last resting place in Rowan county, N. C., was quite new to me. Having never heard in France, my native country, that such had been the fate of this great Captain, I examined the arguments adduced to support this opinion, and must confess that I consider this assertion untenable. A few words will suffice to establish it.

The gentleman spoken of in the above quoted article, may have been a French officer, who, proscribed for his loyalty to Napoleon, sought for and found an asylum in this country, where, to enjoy greater respect, he pretended to be the illustrious Marshal of France—if his assumption is not to be ascribed to monomania. Granted he was, as stated in the article, a martial figure, an accomplished scholar, a noble looking, imposing man, a worshipper of the great Napoleon, and entertained a correspondence with persons in France, does all that establish the identity of this gentleman,—who always wrote his name Peter Ney—with Michael Ney, the Marshal? I do not think so, notwithstanding his affirmation, on which the whole story rests. His own account was, we quote the very words of the Warrenton Indicator, "that he was sentenced to death, but that through the interference of friends at court, the execution was a sham. He was put into a coffin, instead of being buried, he was taken to the coast, thence to America, and that he sought the interior for privacy." Had Louis XVIII wished to save his life, he would rather have pardoned him than have ordered a sham execution, which, being considered to have been a real one, increased his unpopularity. Such a clemency, far from rendering the King unpopular, would have contributed much towards diminishing the odium which rested on the elder branch of the Bourbons, in consequence of their having been forced upon France, by the combined armies of the whole of Europe. If we admit, as asserted, that the gentleman in Cabarrus County was Marshal Ney, and entertained a correspondence with distinguished persons in France, his being still living was no mystery, this intelligence would have spread over all France. But such a rumor never existed. Is it not probable that the sons of this illustrious General, the Prince of the Moskowa and the Duke of Echmuhl, actuated by filial piety, would have come to see their father and to relieve his wants? Would they have allowed the head and founder of their family to be entombed in a foreign country? Would they not have taken his mortal remains to France to rest in their family vault?

If the claim of Rowan County, N. C., to possess the tomb of Marshal Ney is destitute of all probability, the assertion contained in your paper of Nov. 14th, 1867, and copied from the Raleigh Sentinel, that Elkton, Md., was his birth-place, is as erroneous. The Marshal was a native of Saarlouis, a town formerly belonging to France and incorporated with Rhenish Prussia by the treaty of peace of Paris, May 30th, 1814, according to which France lost all her conquests and was confined to her former limits. When Ney was tried in 1815, by a court martial for having abandoned the cause of Louis XVIII, and embraced that of Napoleon, after the latter's return from the island of Elba, his counsel, to save him, pleaded that, being born in Saarlouis, a town no more belonging to France, his client was no longer a Frenchman, but a Russian, a foreigner, and that the court was therefore not competent to judge him. His advocate had scarcely uttered this argument when, considering the use of such a subterfuge incompatible with his honor, the Marshal arose in his manhood and said that he was a Frenchman and would die as a Frenchman. This fact settles this matter.

Elkton, Md., can therefore not claim the honor of being the birth place of Marshal Ney, nor Rowan county, N. C., that of containing his mortal remains. These have found their resting place where they ought to be, namely, in France, with whose glory the name of the Captain, whom Napoleon I. used to call the bravest of the brave, is so closely connected.

L. W. HAIDENREICH,
Professor of Languages in Mrs. Robert Ransom's Female Seminary.
Wilmington, N. C., Jan. 16, 1868.

SENTIMENTS OF THE REPUBLICAN PRESS.

Many of the Republican newspapers of the North, so far as heard from, continue to deprecate the course which Congress has taken within the last few days:

From the New York Commercial Advertiser.

Congress is deliberately at work destroying the executive and judicial arms of the Government! The executive authority was wiped out by the last Congress. The present Congress strikes at the judiciary. When the bill to strangle the Supreme Court, which was rushed through the House, passes in the Senate, it will encounter a veto, and then, by a two-thirds vote, be passed over the head of the President.

From the Providence [R. I.] Journal.

We have had quite enough of this kind of legislation already in the quarrel between Congress and the President, and we shall regret exceedingly to see it repeated in any possible collision between Congress and the Supreme Court. Let nothing, we say, be attempted in Congress, in relation to the Supreme Court, that shall in the least degree bear the character of hasty or passionate legislation.

From the New York Evening Post.

The President is just as much the President as Congress is Congress, or the Supreme Court is the Supreme Court. . . . By virtue of his office the President is made "commander-in-chief of the army and navy of the United States;" in that capacity he is the head of the military arm of the executive, as he is already in his capacity as President head of the civil arm. All military officers as well as all civil officers engaged in the execution of the laws are subordinate to him; he appoints them, commissions them, and gives them orders; and it would be mutiny in any subordinate to refuse obedience to his orders once clearly promulgated.

Has Congress the power given it anywhere to change this fundamental disposition of things? Can it by mere enactment divest the President of the powers vested in him, make another man commander-in-chief, and order him to execute the laws at his own discretion, or subject only to the supervision and control of Congress? If so, what becomes of the constitutional limitations? What meaning is there in the positive, specific, unmistakable clauses vesting the several powers of the Government? Or is Congress, in spite of this language, an omnipotent parliament, in reality like that of Great Britain, representing alone the nation, and entitled to override all other powers when its convictions of the public interests shall so require? If that be the truth, let us know it at once, and pride ourselves no longer on the superiority of our political system to the absolutisms of Europe, which have wrought so much mischief.

Opposition to Radicalism in all its phases.

As a NEWS journal, it shall be equal to any.

The principal markets will be regularly published.

Its LITERARY character shall be maintained and improved, by contributions from our best writers.

Important Order from Gen. Canby.

HEADQ'RS 2D MILITARY DISTRICT,
CHARLESTON, S. C., Dec. 31, 1867.

General Orders No. 168.

I. Paragraph II of General Orders No. 10, from the Headquarters of the Second Military District, dated April 11, 1867, is modified as follows:

SUITS FOR DEBT.

Judgments or decrees for the payment of money on causes of action arising in North Carolina between the 20th of May, 1861, and the 20th day of April, 1865, and in South Carolina between the 19th day of December, 1860, and the 26th day of April, 1865, shall not be enforced, by execution, against the person or property of the defendant. Proceedings for such causes of action now pending, shall be stayed, and no suit or process shall be instituted or commenced on such causes of action until after the civil government of the respective States shall be established in accordance with the laws of the United States.

Paragraph III of the same order is modified as follows:

EXECUTIONS.

Sheriffs, coroners and constables are hereby directed to suspend the sale of all property upon execution, or process under any judgment or decree of a court of the so-called Confederate States, or of the State of North Carolina, rendered between the 20th. day of May, 1861, and the organization of the provisional government of said State, under the President's proclamation of the 29th. day of April, 1865, or of the State of South Carolina, rendered between the 19th. day of December 1860, and the organization of the provisional government of the said State, under the President's proclamation of the 30th. day of June, 1865, unless the written consent of the defendant be entered of record, and except in cases where the plaintiff or his attorney, upon oath, supported by corroborative testimony, shall allege that the defendant is disposing of, removing, or about to remove, his property beyond the jurisdiction of the court, with intent to defraud his creditors; provided, that no such judgment, so rendered, within the periods aforesaid, shall be a bar to the commencement, in a State court, of a new suit upon the same cause of action in any case in which, by law, the defendant may remove or appeal the same to a court of the United States.

FORECLOSURE OF MORTGAGE.

The sale of real or personal property, by foreclosure of mortgage, is likewise suspended in the cases embraced in paragraphs II and III, of said order No. 10 as above amended, except in cases where interest money accruing subsequent to the 20th. of April, 1865, shall not have been paid before the day of sale, and all previous restrictions on such sales are revoked.

Paragraph IV of the same order is modified by substituting the 20th. day of April, 1865, for the 19th. day of May, 1865.

SUITS ON SEALED BEDTS.

All proceedings for the recovery of money on contracts, whether under seal or by parol, the consideration of which was the purchase of slaves, made subsequent to the 1st. day of January, 1863, are suspended. Judgments or decrees entered for such causes of action shall not be enforced.

HOMESTEADS.

In all sales of property under execution, or by order of any Court, there shall be reserved out of the property of any defendant who has a family dependent upon his or her labor, a dwelling house and appurtenances, and (if in the country) twenty acres of land, or so much thereof that the whole shall not exceed in value the sum of two thousand dollars, and in a town or city, the immediate lot upon which such dwelling house is situated; and necessary articles of furniture, apparel, subsistence and implements of husbandry, trade, or other employment, to the value of five hundred dollars. The homestead exemption shall inure only to the benefit of families. In other cases the exemption shall extend only to clothing and implements of trade or employment usually followed by the defendant, of the value of two hundred dollars. The exemptions hereby made shall not be waived or defeated by the act of any defendant who has a family dependent upon him or her for support, and the exempted property shall be ascertained and defined by the sheriff or other officer enforcing the execution, who shall call to his aid two impartial citizens to make the necessary appraisement, and shall make report thereof to the Court.

ARREST FOR FRAUDULENT DEBTS.

Paragraph X is hereby modified so as to authorize arrest in civil actions ex contractu only in cases where the demand is past due, and the defendant has been guilty of a fraud in contracting the debt sued for, or has removed or disposed of his property, or is about to do so, with intent to defraud his creditors, or is about to leave the State with such intent.

EXECUTORS AND TRUSTEES.

Paragraph XVI, is amended by adding thereto: All proceedings in any court of North Carolina, or South Carolina, recognizing or sanctioning the investment of the funds of minor heirs, or of females, or of insane persons, in the securities of the late rebel government, or the securities of the States of North Carolina or South Carolina, created for the purpose of carrying on war against the Government of the United States, will be suspended until the question of the validity of such investments shall have been determined by the courts of the United States, or by national legislation. And nothing in the provisions of this order, or of the order No. 10 above cited, shall be held to bar or hinder the recovery, by suit, of the estate of any minor heir, female or insane person, (except one trust), whether in the hands of executors, administrators, trustees, guardians, masters or clerks of equity courts, and other fiduciary agents, or invested by them in their fiduciary character.

DISTILLERIES.

II. General Order 25, of May 20, 1867, is revoked; and on and after the first day of January, 1868, the distillation of spirituous liquors in this Military District will be subject to such restrictions only as are imposed by the laws of the United States and of the States of North and South Carolina, respectively.

TAX BOOKS.

III. Paragraphs VI and VII of General Orders No. 32, dated May 30, 1867, are revoked, and the power to grant licenses for the sale of spirituous or intoxicating liquors is remitted to the proper local authorities, to take effect on and after the 1st. day of January, 1868, and to be subject to the following conditions:

1. The municipal authorities granting the license shall be answerable that the parties to whom such licenses are granted, together with their sureties, shall be responsible persons and of good moral standing in the community, and that such principal and sureties shall be able to qualify individually in double the amount of the bond required, and that the bond shall be a lien upon the personal property of both principal and sureties, and upon proof of default shall warrant the summary seizure and sale of so much of the property of either or both as may be necessary to satisfy the forfeiture or fine and costs.

2. Drunkenness or disorderly conduct on the premises shall work the forfeiture of the license and of the penalty of the bond.

3. The owner or keeper of any bar-room, saloon or other place at which intoxicating liquors are sold, and all other persons interested or connected therewith, shall be regarded as principals in any action of damages growing out of any assault, riot, affray or other disorder occurring on the premises, or directly traceable thereto.

4. All bar-rooms, saloons or other places at which intoxicating liquors are sold, shall be closed on the day or days of any general or local election, and for the twelve hours next preceding the opening and next succeeding the closing of the polls at such election; and the sheriffs of counties and districts and the chief of police of cities and towns shall have power to direct the closing of bar-rooms and other places for the sale of intoxicating liquors, whenever it may be necessary in their judgment to preserve order and quiet.

5. The proceeds of all licenses, forfeitures and fines, under the local regulations or under the provisions of military orders, will be devoted to the support of the poor, and as soon as realized will be turned over to the Commissioners or Overseers of the poor of the District, County, City or Town in which they are assessed, and the Commissioners or Overseers will at the end of each month report to the Provost Marshal-General of the District the amount received by them during the month, specifying the name of the parties from whom it was received.

6. The penalties imposed by this order or by the local police regulations, may be enforced in any civil or military Court, and upon conviction the Court may award to the informer a sum not exceeding fifty per cent. of the forfeiture or fine. And it is made the duty of all Sheriffs, Constables, and Coroners of Counties and Districts, and the police of cities and towns, to be vigilant in the enforcement of the police regulations and the provisions of this order in relation to the sale of intoxicating liquors.

The provisions of this paragraph will be held to apply to such licenses granted under General Orders No. 32, to inn-keepers, as remain unexpired after the first of January, 1868.

DISTRICT COURTS.

IV. To promote the speedy trial of prisoners confined for minor offences, and diminish the cost of their maintenance, all committing magistrates will, on the 15th. and last days of each month, report to the judge of their county or District Court all commitments made by them during the preceding half month, specifying the date of commitments, the names of the prisoners, and the offences for which they were committed, to the end that the judges may, whenever in their opinion the number of prisoners or other considerations of public interest call for it, hold special terms of their courts, for the purpose of discharging such cases. The additional expense of holding such special terms will be a charge upon the State Treasury, and the accounts therefor will be audited and paid as accounts of a similar character are now audited and paid, and if the salaries now paid the judges should be inadequate in view of the additional labor performed by them, a reasonable addition, upon proper representations through the Governor of the State, will be allowed.

PILOTAGE.

V. The pilotage regulations now existing in the States of North and South Carolina are so far modified that, on and after the first day of March, 1868, all passenger steam vessels, regulated by the laws of the United States, and carrying a pilot commissioned by United States Commissioners, shall be exempt from the compulsory payment of pilotage.

SOUTH CAROLINA POLL TAX.

VI. So much of the act of the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, entitled "An act to raise monies," ratified on the 26th. day of February, 1867, as makes it "the duty of all persons and corporations to list and pay the [poll] tax of such personsliable to the same, as are in their employment, on the 1st. day of April of each year, as laborers," is rescinded, and hereafter all individual taxes will be assessed directly upon and collected directly from the individuals from whom they are due: provided, that the provisions of this order shall not apply to the taxes levied for the current year, except that double poll tax shall not be enforced if the original tax be paid on or before the 1st. day of March, 1868.
